

Changing lives – one word at a time

“Literacy for Life provides meaningful support to help people improve their lives in many ways, from being able to understand medical information to getting a driver’s license. And, of course, the program provides excellent help in the basic communication skills of reading and writing. Shamar has been a model learner at Literacy for Life. After becoming a United States citizen, he wanted to join the military. He successfully completed the requirements for the Virginia National Guard last year, and now he wants to continue his education by going to college. I believe it’s been a remarkable and rewarding journey for both of us.”

~ Virnell Bruce, Tutor

“I’m proud to be an American citizen, and Literacy for Life helped me become one. They also helped me improve my communication skills. I’ve enjoyed the program and am grateful for all of the people in the organization who have supported me.” ~ Shamar Saavedra, Learner

Here’s how you can help:

1. Spread the word.

If you know of someone who needs help with their literacy skills, tell them about Literacy for Life. Share the “tear off” below and help them set an appointment to start improving their future.

2. Volunteer.

If you have the time to help someone learn to read and write in English, please call us. Our need for tutors is great as we always have eager students who want to remove the barriers in their lives by improving their understanding of the English language.

Sign up for tutor training today!

- English Literacy
Aprender Inglés
- Community and Citizenship
Comunidad y Ciudadanía
- Math Fundamentals
Aprender Matemáticas
- Health Literacy
Educacion de Salud

Call Today! (Llama hoy!)
757-221-3325

Changing lives – one word at a time

301 Monticello Avenue
School of Education
College of William and Mary literacyforlife.org