

We're Thankful

for our volunteer tutors, and they're thankful too...

"When I walk out of a meeting with my learner, I always feel terrific because I have given something of myself and I always learn something valuable." ~ Pat Dugan

"Volunteering at Literacy for Life as a tutor is by far the most satisfying experience in my life-long career as a community volunteer." ~ Marilyn Hicok

"Reading opened up my world, so having the opportunity to help someone else with reading has been rewarding." ~ Erin Holloway

"As a tutor, I am grateful to help learners reach for and achieve their goals." ~ Bruce Ebersole

"Tutoring my learner has been such a positive experience. I tell friends that maybe I've learned more from him than he has learned from me!" ~ Barbara Powers

"I can make a direct impact on my community. I can be the change I want to see." ~ Salley Rowe

"As a tutor I get to see the brightness in my learner's eyes when she learns something new." ~ Bob Brooks
