

“The help I have received from tutors at Literacy for Life has had a huge impact on my life. I moved to the U.S. to escape a bad situation in my native country of Peru where I worked as a CNA. I could not continue as a CNA because I didn’t speak English, so I cleaned houses. I also didn’t drive, so my life was very limited. I felt trapped and dependent on others. Providing a good life for my son is my greatest motivation. I attended Literacy for Life and step by step, with the help of patient, encouraging tutors, I slowly achieved my goals. I learned English, I got my driver’s license, I became a U.S. citizen, and last month I was able to return to my passion of caring for people. I became qualified as a CNA in this country. I could never have achieved all of this on my own. The tutors at Literacy for Life really do change lives.”

Here’s how you can help:

1. Spread the word.

If you know of someone who needs help with their literacy skills, tell them about Literacy for Life. Share the “tear off” below and help them set an appointment to start improving their future.

2. Volunteer.

If you have the time to help someone learn to read and write in English, please call us. Our need for tutors is great as we always have eager students who want to remove the barriers in their lives by improving their understanding of the English language.
